GUIDE 2023

Fast and furious, bright and shiny, calm and chilling – you'll find it all along Great Yarmouth's Golden Mile.

Whatever your mood, you'll find its match on Marine Parade.

Between the Britannia Pier past the Wellington Pier to the Pleasure Beach, is the heart of the seafront fun and action during the day and after dark, when it shines bright with stunning decorative lighting.

Take a stroll or jump on board one of Great Yarmouth's famous horse drawn landaus to explore the Golden Mile's treasures. Along the beach, you'll discover traditional seaside donkey rides, trampolines and bouncy castles for children.

On the promenade and roads around it, there's adventure golf, a big wheel for panoramic views stretching for miles, the renowned Merrivale Model Village where world-famous Banksy left his mark and Sea Life Great Yarmouth. Not forgetting the arcades, cinema, swimming pool and gym at the new £26 million Marina Centre, which opened in 2022, the spectacular atmospheric Hippodrome Circus, the last remaining Victorian circular circus in the country, ten-pin bowling, fairground rides, gardens, restaurants, tearooms, pubs and much more.

When making your way along the Golden Mile remember to look up, there's always a surprise of unusual architecture on the mix of multi-storey buildings.

GREAT YARMOUTH'S GOLDEN MILE

North of the Britannia Pier lies the North beach with its beautiful sandy dunes, a wonderfully idyllic haven for both nature and visitors alike. Running directly parallel to the dunes are the Venetian Waterways and adjoining Boating Lake, a seven acre park where you can cross the bridge of the 'canals' to explore the islands of the imaginatively designed and planted Ornamental Gardens and take a boat out on the boating lake.

The park is the result of a renovation of the original 1928 waterways and attracts visitors from far and wide.

The boating lake is the last of its kind in the region and a popular haven for ducks and heron.

Pause at the café to watch the world go by.

HEMSBY & NEWPORT

Just seven miles north of Great Yarmouth, separated by stretches of sandy beach lies the linked village resorts of Hemsby & Newport, packed with activities day and night.

A buzzing self-contained resort, where the whole family can enjoy go-karting, amusements, crazy and mini golf, family fun parks, bars and restaurants.

In the summertime, just on the outskirts of the resort, look out for the incredible maize maze and lose yourself in the myriads of twists and turns.

Like Great Yarmouth, the sky over the beach comes alive with spectacular fireworks every week through the summer.

The view from Gorleston cliffs never fails to take your breath away.

A stunning bay with a wide curving, golden sandy beach delivers all year round, whether you're looking to soak up the sun, paddle in the sea, build sandcastles with the children in the summer or enjoy a bracing out of season stroll.

But Gorleston is so much more than a spectacular beach that regularly ranks on Tripadvisor as one of the UK's best beaches and great for windsurfing, surfing and body-boarding.

Its model yacht pond and children's splashpad, shops, cafes, amusements and amenity area, puts everything you need close by.

Climb the slope to the cliff gardens and a grand promenade with pitch & putt, a play area for children and beautiful gardens.

Down by the harbour, is the pier where you can watch boats serving wind farms off the coast coming in and out where once vessels from the herring fleet would sail.

Gorleston boasts an Edwardian theatre with shows throughout the year and the historic Ocean Room where shows, events, and dancing happens.

A short walk away is Gorleston's bustling high street, a hive of independent shops and household names, cafes, restaurants and pubs. It's a real shopping haven.

Gorleston, a real hidden gem, perfect for you to stay and explore.

GORLESTON -ON-SEA

WINTERTON-ON-SEA

The pretty ancient fishing village of Winterton-On-Sea nine miles north of Great Yarmouth is a real treasure to visit.

Its sandy beach backed by dunes and paths through rambling marrams grass makes it hugely popular with dog walkers and families – as well as its all-round well-earned reputation for being especially canine-friendly.

Sandwiched between the sea and the Norfolk Broads, it is a beautifully unspoilt village with traditional brick and flint cottages, quirky little shops, tearooms and a 300 year-old pub, Fishermans Return.

Winterton Dunes is a designated site of special scientific interest and a National Nature Reserve of 109 hectares, which is home to rare flora and fauna, including rare little terns that nest on the beach.

Seals popping up their heads in the sea or venturing on to the beach are familiar sights in the summer. In the winter breeding season, you can view seals and their pups from afar.

THE VILLAGES

There are surprises around every corner in the villages around Great Yarmouth.

Highlights include Filby, famous for its tremendous summer annual floral display, Filby in Bloom, and its wins of the village category of Britain in Bloom, as well as its broad and Viking roots.

The community is so committed to its colourful reputation, it keeps an all-year-round display to delight visitors.

Rowing boats accessible to wheelchair users can be hired. Fishing platforms are also available suitable for wheelchair users.

At Burgh Castle, you'll find one of the best-preserved Roman monuments in Britain, the late 3rd century Saxon Shore fort, built as part of the Roman network of coastal defences. Three stone walls survive, around which a wildlife haven has developed, offering panoramic views over Breydon Water.

If you're looking for a quiet stretch of beach for a long walk, Scratby, below low sandy cliffs, is perfect, stretching for miles in both directions – to Caister-on-Sea, or even Great Yarmouth south, or Hemsby Beach, and on to Winterton Dunes National Nature Reserve to the north.

Popular for fishing and swimming, dogs are allowed at Scratby all year round. Surfers love the beach in winter for its decent waves.

Another highlight is the Ormesby area. Ormesby St Michael is a tiny village at the furthest edge of the unique Trinity Broads, situated between Ormesby Broad to the north and Ormesby Little Broad to the south, both part of the Trinity Broads.

The Trinity Broads are a series of five land-locked Broads around the villages of Filby, Rollesby and Ormesby. They remain virtually undisturbed because their only link to the main river is a shallow, un-navigable tributary of the River Bure called Muck Fleet, so they were designated a Site of Special Scientific Interest in 1998. They are areas rich in birdlife and natural beauty. Carefully regulated sailing, boating and fishing are allowed, respecting the natural environment.

Ormesby St. Margaret is built around two large village greens and has a medieval church.

Martham is one of the most northerly villages in the borough, which has several examples of fine Georgian houses, a large village green and duck pond with a lovely selection of local shops, pubs and restaurants. Nearby is Martham Broad with a 140 acre nature reserve, which is well worth exploring.

Caister-on-Sea, is another old fishing village seaside resort and now busy holiday destination.

Caister's history also dates back to Roman times with a fort built around AD 200 as a base for a unit of the Roman army and navy. The name 'Caister' derives from the Anglo-Saxon word 'ceaster' meaning 'Roman fort'.

Caister has a rich offshore lifeboat history dating back to 1791 and operates an independent lifeboat today.

On the banks of the River Waveney, St Olaves is a great place for hiring boats to explore the beautiful Broads. The remains of a 13th-century Augustinian priory, St. Olaves Priory, include parts of the refectory, cloisters, and the priory mill.

South of Gorleston-on-Sea lies Hopton-on-Sea, home to a range of holiday parks and accommodation.

An established holiday centre, there are many places to stay, visitor amenities, places to eat, drink and play.

Its sandy beach stretches down the coast towards Suffolk, running alongside low grassy cliffs.

Potters Resort, awarded Five Star Holiday Village status with VisitEngland for multiple years, was the first permanent mixed use holiday centre in the UK back in 1920. It has continued to build its premier reputation and is home to the World Indoor Bowls Championship held every January.

BEAUTIFUL BEACHES

Our stretch of coastline is blessed with some of the finest golden unspoilt beaches in the UK.

Whether your thing is sitting in a deckchair watching the sun glistening on the sea, laying down a blanket for a picnic and soaking up the sun, finding the quietest spot for watching birds and wildlife, or building a sandcastle, playing beach cricket or flying a kite, you'll find your perfect patch of sand.

Choose from the more fun beaches with bouncy castles, deck chair hire and amusements, to more deserted beaches north and south of Great Yarmouth.

Our beaches are popular all year round for walking, attracting many people for spring, autumn and winter breaks as well as summer.

Several beaches have RNLI lifeguards watching them in the summer offering peace of mind.

WINTERTON-ON-SEA

Quiet, soft, pale sandy beach with sand dunes next to a Nature Reserve.

HEMSBY & NEWPORT

Lively village resorts with shops, amusements, attractions and cafés, and home to Hemsby Inshore Rescue Service. Blessed with sand dunes and a stunning golden, sandy beach.

SCRATBY

Curving, ochre-coloured, wide, quiet sandy beach with cliffs. Access via slope and steps.

CALIFORNIA

CAISTER-ON-SEA

NORTH BEACH - GREAT YARMOUTH

Wide sand dunes, perfect for dog walking at any time of the year, lead to a quiet sandy beach facing Scroby Sands Wind Farm. The renowned Venetian Waterways, cafés, and bowling greens are nearby.

CENTRAL BEACH - GREAT YARMOUTH

Runs alongside vibrant Marine Parade. Wide, golden, traditional family-fun beach with donkey rides, bouncy castles and trampolines. Beach wheelchairs are available for hire and must be pre booked. For information on how to book follow this link Beach Wheelchairs - Great Yarmouth

SOUTH BEACH - GREAT YARMOUTH

Quiet, wide, sandy beach with a few sand dunes stretching from Wellington Pier to the Outer Harbour. Cafés and attractions are nearby, with amusements on Marine Parade.

GORLESTON-ON-SEA

Huge, wide, curving golden sandy beach gently sloping towards the sea with children's splash pad and yacht pond. Shops, cafés and benches on a long promenade with a bandstand at the bottom of grassy cliffs. At the top of the cliffs there are many things to see and do including pitch and putt, children's play areas, gardens, trim trail and bowling greens.

HOPTON-ON-SEA

Beach punctuated with groynes. Limited parking, pedestrian access to beach via slope. Holiday Village guests have direct access to the beach from their resorts.

DAYS OUT

More than 60 attractions delivering family fun for every generation all day, every day, is why people return year after year.

A rich variety of activities offers more than enough to keep everyone busy and entertained whatever the weather.

Whether getting up close to sea creatures, reptiles, tigers, red pandas and crocodiles is your thing at either Thrigby Hall Wildlife Park or Sea Life Great Yarmouth, or a high-octane day of white-knuckle rides at the Golden Mile's Pleasure Beach, it's all here plus much more, all adding up to an action-packed schedule for a family break.

For a break from theme and fun parks, a day at the races at the world-renowned Great Yarmouth Racecourse offers a change where you can watch leading jockeys and horses thundering past.

AFTER DARK

When the sun goes down, the fun just goes on.

Night life is always lively and varied, beckoning visitors to let their hair down and make the most of every minute away and explore the sights, sounds and tastes of all there is to offer.

Live music, live theatre, clubs to dance the night away, restaurants and hospitable pubs all with a rich and diverse offer combine with the Hippodrome Circus where the purpose built ring fills with water for synchronised swimmers and dancers to perform beneath dare devil trapeze artists.

Wellington Bowl at the Wellington Pier offers 10-pin bowling with amusements.

For showtime during the summer months the end of the Britannia Pier offers some big names for your entertainment. The St. George's Theatre and the delightful theatre in Gorleston offer a year round mixed programme of shows.

The Pavilion Theatre in Gorleston is a beautiful example of Edwardian architecture built in 1901 by the architect J.W. Cockrill, where you can sit at your own table and have a drink whilst taking in the delights of the show.

St. George's Theatre in Great Yarmouth is another fine historic building, originally a consecrated church but was deconsecrated in 1950. Local arts groups have ensured its survival.

Situated within another architectural gem, watch the latest blockbuster on one of Arc Cinema's five screens in luxurious leather armchairs with generous legroom, which is situated opposite the Britannia Pier.

SUMMER FIREWORKS

Weekly evening fireworks is a proud Great Yarmouth tradition, extending to Hemsby having its own firework display on the beach throughout the summer holidays.

Attractions, cafés and restaurants open late all evening in both areas and features live entertainment before the finale of the fireworks soar with beautiful colours into the night sky.

Displays take place on Wednesdays in Great Yarmouth and Tuesdays in Hemsby, so you can catch both with their street and beach entertainment.

A bus link runs between the two venues.

BROADS & COUNTRYSIDE

Within a few minutes, the bright lights and razzmatazz of the seafront can be left behind, when you escape from it all to the tranquillity and natural beauty of the wildlife packed Norfolk Broads.

The unique meandering waterways entice throngs of visitors to navigate the rivers in sailing and motor cruisers, many passing through Great Yarmouth to the southern rivers.

From the north, boats can cruise along reed-lined rivers Thurne and Bure, past Martham, Thurne, Acle and Stokesby through breath-taking countryside views, with historic windmills dotted on the horizon.

You can hire a day boat if you're staying on land, or spend your entire break on the water, stopping at the plentiful mooring spots, many close to fine broadland pubs, cafes and tearooms.

Riverside walks are stunning and there's much wildlife and nature to spot in the natural habitats of reserves.

You are also able to hire canoes, kayaks and stand up paddle boards to enjoy a different view of the Broads from the water. Or if you prefer to stay on land why not hire a pedal bike or tandem to ride along the many miles of cycle paths passing through breathtaking countryside

Great Yarmouth Yacht Station, run by the Broads Authority, is next to Great Yarmouth's north-west tower, just a short walk from Great Yarmouth town centre.

It's the perfect spot to moor up and enjoy everything that Great Yarmouth has to offer.

From the south, visitors can sail past St. Olaves and Fritton and on to Burgh Castle at the conflux of the River Yare and the River Waveney and along to Breydon Water where the sunsets are stunning.

Day boats can also be hired at St. Olaves near the bridge. The lovely Berney Arms Windmill, which is accessible only by foot, train or boat, is just before the conflux of the rivers Yare and Waveney and is well worth a look.

The pretty villages of Filby, Rollesby and Ormesby surround the famous Trinity Broads, five standalone, but interlinked Broads, which are a haven for wildlife and birdlife. A wooden board walk at Filby is easily accessible to everyone. There are plenty of longer walks taking in the villages and beautiful Broads views all over the area.

CULTURAL & HERITAGE GREAT YARMOUTH

Great Yarmouth has a rich fascinating history evident from its incredible architecture, Medieval town walls (the second best preserved medieval town wall in England), a Scheduled Ancient Monument - with its origins traced back to 1261, fishing industry and events, which put the town at the heart of international trading through its port.

Join one of our fantastic guided heritage walks, explore the history of this ancient seaside resort, fishing port and market town.

Witness Great Yarmouth's sea heritage come to life at the Time and Tide Museum of Great Yarmouth Life, where you can trace the story of its herring industry in a converted Victorian herring curing works.

Wander through a Victorian 'Row' and see inside a fisherman's home. Feel the atmosphere of a 1950s quayside, steer a coastal Drifter and hear gripping tales of wreck and rescue on the high seas. Alongside regular exhibitions, there are plenty of hands-on displays, games, puzzles, free audio guides, film shows and children's activities.

The National Trust's Elizabethan House Museum on South Quay is a must visit.

Moored on the South Quay is one of Britain's most significant historic vessels, the 92-year-old Lydia Eva, the last surviving steam drifter of the herring fishing fleet based in Great Yarmouth. Listed as part of the National Historic Fleet, in 2022 the Lydia Eva played a major role in the prequel film to Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. She is open to visitors at weekends between March and October.

Believed to be the second most complete medieval wall in the country, Great Yarmouth's Medieval town wall is just over a mile long with eleven surviving towers.

Work started on the wall in 1276 and took more than a century to complete. It was more than 23 feet high and 2,280 yards long, with 10 gates and 16 towers.

Explore Great Yarmouth's historic Rows, the series of narrow condensed streets in Great Yarmouth that ran from east to west - the direction of the coastline and towards the river at South Quay and housed families in cramped dwellings. It is commonly stated that there were 145 Rows with the first mention as early as 1198.

A Roman fort at Burgh Castle is one of the best-preserved Roman monuments in Britain. Built in the late 3rd century as part of the Roman network of coastal defences, three stone walls survive, almost to their original height.

EATING OUT

You're spoilt for choice when it comes to eating out in the area.

Its diverse range of restaurants, cafes, pubs and takeaways cater for all tastes, budgets and occasions.

Gold-standard customer service is a priority for front of house staff whether you choose an all-day breakfast, quick lunch, traditional afternoon tea, Sunday roast or the best fish and chips.

If you're celebrating a special occasion, we have some outstanding restaurants in Great Yarmouth serving a wide range of cuisines from local seafood to modern contemporary British meals, whether it is a romantic meal for two, a birthday celebration or anniversary dinner.

TOWN CENTRE & SHOPPING

Great Yarmouth is a traditional market town with a permanent market in the heart of the town.

A £4.7m investment in development of the large marketplace has created a new covered market to house 26 main stalls of different sizes, as well as two kiosks and spaces for pop-up traders, with extra stalls on market day on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Regent Road is Great Yarmouth's famous pedestrianised shopping experience off the seafront and a must-visit destination for its Pandora's box of choice and novelty finds.

A diverse range of shops, from gift and souvenirs to crafts and clothes, the famous Docwra's Rock Factory, cafes and restaurants line both sides of the road.

Nearby Gorleston-on-Sea is proud of its traditional busy high street with many independent shops to browse just a short walk from the beach.

Out-of-town retail parks can be found on the main roads between Gorleston-On-Sea and Great Yarmouth. You'll find M&S Food Hall, TK Maxx, The Range, Home Bargains and some of the larger warehouses, such as Halfords and B&Q.

More shops are found in the villages of Caister-On-Sea and Hemsby, which cater superbly for people staying on local holiday parks who want to cook for themselves.

Home grown produce is found everywhere because Norfolk is an agricultural county, so keep an eye out for fishmongers, local butchers and seasonal fruit and vegetables in many of the borough's villages.

The baking aroma from local bakers always smells delicious, perfect for sandwiches and picnics.

Several large supermarkets can be found if you're wanting to do a large shop all in one go.

WHERE TO STAY?

There's so much choice when it comes to places to stay to enjoy the Great Yarmouth experience to the full.

From holiday parks to traditional seafront B&Bs and hotels, boutique, larger and big-name brands, seaview suites with a balcony, to rural lodges nestled into stunning woodland, catered to self-catering, you'll be welcomed by a gold-standard smile and customer service that the destination prides itself on.
